Newsletter

25th March 2016

Dear colleagues and friends,

we are glad to announce we are still here and back to an active phase. Due to the circumstances we took long term to change some organisational strategies and work on different opportunities for our all year round activities. IAWHP e.V. held lecture on main topics in World Heritage issues in Russia (December 2015) and aimed to continue this relay in Germany and Spain soon. For those, who are interested in this event, please, contact our Board members for the details, and who knows, maybe next checkpoint will be pinned in your country! Contribute your time and passion to WH being active!

Symposium 2017

We are sorry to say that there is no Conference in 2016, but we are willingly hope to see all of you in 2017, back here, in Germany. Approximate date is set as April 2017, please, wait for the updates via our newsletters soon.

Study opportunities:

UNESCO frictions: Heritage-making across global governance, one postdoc position within the project. Hosted by École des hautes études en sciences sociales (EHESS) and based at the Institut interdisciplinaire d'anthropologie du contemporain (IIAC) in Paris. Starts in October 2016.
